

South Arts:

- Visit South Art's grants and opportunities page for resources to support your work.
- Sign up for our newsletter to be notified about new opportunities as they are posted.
- See our state partner and presenter networks for state-specific resources.
- Affected by Hurricane Helene? Explore resources for cultural institutions and artists.

National Resources

National Endowment for the Arts:

- Learn more about the NEA's grant opportunities, including resources for new applicants: <https://www.arts.gov/grants>
- Sign up for the NEA's monthly ArtMatters newsletter and discipline-specific newsletters, which provide information such as grant opportunities, office hours, and news from the field: <https://www.arts.gov/sign-up-for-updates>
- Learn more about opportunities at the state level: <https://www.arts.gov/impact/state-profiles>.

Service Organizations to Explore:

- American Alliance of Museums - Represents the entire museum field
- Association of Performing Arts Presenters - National service organization for the live performing arts field
- Chamber Music America - Supporting the evolving chamber music field. Includes support for jazz.
- Creative Capital - Artist support
- Dance/USA - The national service organization for dance
- League of American Orchestras - Supporting orchestras across the U.S.
- National Assembly of State Arts Agencies \(NASAA\) - Supporting the work of state agencies
- Theatre Communications Group - National organization for theatre

One Stop Shopping:

- Artist Communities Alliance has an online database of open calls and residency opportunities. They also post opportunities to their social media channels - so be sure to follow!
- Artist Trust has a list of national funders for individual artists sorted by discipline.
- Fractured Atlas provides a variety of tools a guidance to artists. They also provide opportunity listings and a variety of learning resources on their website.
- NYFA Source is a searchable database of awards, services, and publications for artists and arts professionals. Thousands of resources are posted and you can drill down using a variety of filters to find what you might need. In addition to the database, there are also emergency resources, resources for teaching artists, and professional development links on the database homepage.

- The Philanthropy News Digest Alerts and Newsletters. Create a free account and sign-up for alerts and newsletters across a variety of subjects. These are delivered right to your inbox and you decide on the frequency. Many of our newsletter opportunity links are culled from this resource! Bonus - the alerts provide deadlines, brief overviews, and links to the full opportunity on the pertinent website.
- Sign-up for our sister Regional Arts Organizations' Pushing the Flywheel blog. This bi-weekly resource is provided by Mid-America Arts Alliance and features opportunities for artists and organizations across the U.S.